MORTGAGE CAUSES SUIT

Suit for foreclosure on a mortgage on the old Singer plant was filed by the Singer Manufacturing Co. against the Manufacturers' Plant and Power Co. in the circuit court Tuesday.

Judgment for $130,000 is asked. A mortgage for $125,000 was given in June, 1907, according to the complaint and less than $1,000 has been paid on this debt, it is alleged.

The plant and power company has been sub-letting the buildings to various small manufacturers.

STICK PINS ARE STOLEN

Burglars, with the aid of a jimmy, gained an entrance into the Edward Guthrie home, 1303 Vista av., late Tuesday afternoon and made away with several jeweled stick pins. Officers found a front window pried open and evidences that the house had been ransacked. Besides the stick pins nothing else has been missed.
